

Booksigning at the All Saints Anglican Church Fall Festival

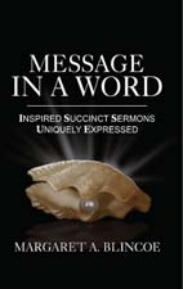

Saturday, October 30, 11:00 AM - 4:00 PM

11122 Link Drive in Castle Hills * For more information and map: www.allsaintsanglican.net
Autographed books from all authors will be available all day * Authors will be present as indicated

Signing throughout the day

Lillie Ammann has been a member of All Saints for nearly 15 years and the parish webmaster for 12 years. As a freelance writer and editor, she worked with all participating authors to edit and prepare their books for publication. Dream or Destiny is a romantic mystery novel selected by a reviewer as a favorite Christian book read during 2008—on a list that included two CS Lewis titles. From the back cover: Marilee Anderson dreams about a murder and wakes to find it really happened. She and David Nichols, the victim's brother, become the prime suspects. Though they have their secrets and aren't sure they can trust each other, Marilee and David team up to find the killer. Website: www.lillieammann.com

Margaret A. Blincoe, who was born into a family of pastors, traveled the world with her military husband and raised a family. Recurrent dreams over many years led her to write Message in a Word. The book is a 52-week devotional, with each devotion based on a single word defined in an acrostic. Message in a Word Means Exploring Specific Subject And Getting Enlightenment In A Nutshell As Written Oracle Revealed Deity. Words can heal or hurt, save or destroy. Words are so important that the Bible describes Jesus as The Word. Often we have tunnel vision and focus on what we think a word means, when God has so much more for us to see and understand. This book gives a different perspective on many common words, revealing the divinely inspired and inspiring message in the word. Website: www.messageinaword.com

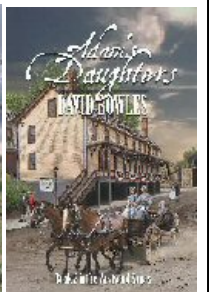

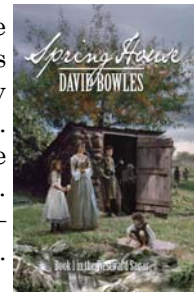

Signing 1:30-4 PM

Signing 1:30-4 PM

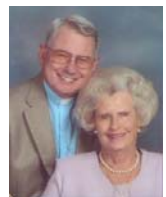

David Bowles, storyteller and award-winning author, grew up hearing the folklore of his ancestors and knew those stories needed to be preserved. He writes the Westward Sagas series as historical fiction so vivid characters and witty scenes fill in gaps where extensive research couldn't document the event. Historical characters and happenings, such as the Revolutionary War battle fought on the Mitchell farm, are accurately told, with author's resources indexed. The first books in The Westward Sagas—Spring House and Adam's Daughters—detail one family's struggles during the first 20 years of our nation's existence. Book 3 is coming soon. Website: www.westwardsagas.com

James Doughty has been a TV reporter for 13 years. When viewers see him on the air, they see a man who has achieved his lifelong dream. They don't see the lonely, sexually abused child with a father-sized hole in his heart. James grew up missing the father he never knew and spent much of his early adulthood searching for his paternal family. Today he uses the name Muñoz (his mother's maiden name) on the air to honor his maternal family and Hispanic heritage and the name Doughty (his surname) in private life to honor his father and his paternal family's legacy. He shares his story, along with family poems and letters and advice to young people, to inspire and encourage others to follow their dreams and build their own monuments to last. Website: www.doughtyfamilies.com

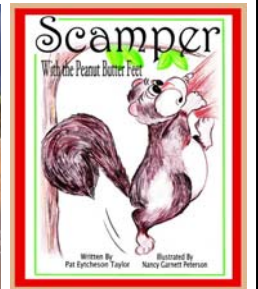

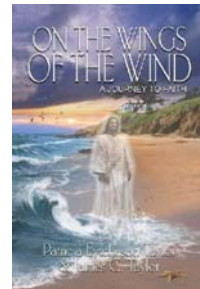

Signing 11-1:30

Rep will be present 12:30-3 PM

Patricia Eytcheson Taylor and Rev. Dr. James C. Taylor co-authored On the Wings of the Wing: A Journey to Faith, a profound love story of entering each new phase of the life guided by God. Since retirement from the U. S. Army Chaplain Corps, James has served as a Lutheran interim pastor in several congregations. Pat shares in this ministry through her gifts of compassion, visitation, and speaking. Pat is the author of Scamper With the Peanut Butter Feet, the first in a series of children's picture books. Websites: www.onthewingsofthewind.com and www.catchawinnerpublishing.com

Richard Turner, The Cheat, known as "the greatest card mechanic of all times," has used his amazing skill with a pack of 52 to entertain, inspire, and motivate in live performances and TV appearances around the world. He is a sixth degree black belt and creator of board games and DVDs. Richard used his experiences, his deep faith, and his vivid imagination to write Re-Deal: A Time Travel Thriller. From the back cover: Buckle up for time travel, karate, and gambling in this action-adventure thriller. Matt McCain, a young man trying to overcome personal loss and family misfortune, and his amigo Juan, a Mexican orphan turned evangelist, are pitted against the Cyphers, a family that utilizes evil for every gain. The presence of Miss Guided, the angel who doesn't always get it right, changes them all. Website: www.richardturner52.com

Signing 11-1:30